

Please do not override Wisconsin's do not call law. It shields my family not only from unwanted interruptions at inconvenient times, but also from the fraud and abuse that is so characteristic of telemarketing. Wisconsin's law is the product of an open and fair legislative process in which both citizens and businesses had their say. It should be allowed to stand. Thank you.